

Digital Marketing Intern

Are you passionate about doing GOOD and enjoy supporting big initiatives? Are you tech savvy and believe connecting with others via social media can make an impact? We want you on our team! The Elevate Prize Foundation is a non-profit foundation with the heart of a start-up. The HQ is in Miami, FL with remote teams in NY, LA, Boston, and London.

The Elevate Prize Foundation is looking for a part-time Digital Marketing Intern with a passion for social impact to join our team of dedicated nerds working to #MakeGoodFamous.

The Digital Marketing Intern will focus primarily on social media and will also be involved in new Elevate Prize initiatives such as our new GET LOUD Award.

This internship is a great opportunity for you to dip your toes into the social impact space, learn about digital and social media, and truly be part of a team. We are small and nimble, so we're looking for someone who is not afraid to share great ideas to help elevate our message.

Main Responsibilities:

- General community management (communicating with our social media audience).
- Social media reporting (tracking the types of posts that are performing the best across platforms).
- Potential to get involved in copywriting or design.
- Managing nominations from Instagram and basic research on nominated organizations.
- Coordinating with the broader Elevate team and contributing to the selection process.

We need you to:

- Have a passion for changing the world and doing good.
- Have a basic understanding of social media platforms.
- Have an interest in digital media and communications.
- Be majoring (or a recent graduate) in a related field.
- Be willing to learn new tools.
- Be able to work to manage your time effectively with a self-starter mentality
- Believe in radical diversity, global collaboration, and creativity and resilience. These are some of our values that are central to everything we do!

Not a need, but we'd love someone who:

- Live in the New York or Miami metro area who would be willing to travel for monthly in-person meetings.
- Has experience in mission-lead, social impact work / is interested in moving into this area of work.

Benefits & Compensation

- Part-time up to 20 hours per week.
- Flexible work schedule and ability to work from anywhere.

Digital Marketing Intern

- The intern will be paid $20/hour.
- Cellular Stipend
- Career & Development Mentorship.
- Opportunity to grow and learn in non-profit sector.
